
A 10 Day Devotional Guide to Moses: Walking with God Through Every Season

Moses' life is one of the clearest pictures in Scripture of what it looks like to walk with God over time. His journey was not quick or simple. It was marked by waiting, fear, obedience, failure, growth, and deep encounters with God's presence. Moses was not chosen because he was confident or flawless. He was chosen because God desired to walk with him.

This devotional is not meant to rush through Moses' story. It is an invitation to slow down and reflect on how God journeyed with Moses through every season of his life; from preservation and calling to leadership, correction, and faithfulness at the end of the journey.

As you move through these ten days, allow yourself to sit with the Scripture. Pay attention not only to what Moses does, but to what God does. Notice God's patience, His guidance, His power, and His closeness. Moses' story reminds us that walking with God is not about perfection, but about trust and obedience over time.

Whether you are in a season of waiting, stepping into a calling, facing correction, or learning to finish well, this guide is meant to meet you where you are. The same God who walked with Moses is walking with you.

Take your time. Read prayerfully. Reflect honestly. And allow God to speak to your heart as you walk through the journey together.

This devotional guide is designed to help you walk slowly through the life of Moses, not just to learn what happened, but to reflect on how God journeyed with him. Moses' story unfolds over many chapters of Scripture, and each season reveals something about God's character, His patience, and His faithfulness.

Use this guide for personal devotion, Bible study, or small group reflection. Take your time. Read prayerfully. Allow God to speak through the journey.

Day 1: A Life Preserved by God

Scripture: Exodus 1–2

Moses' story begins in danger. His life is threatened before it truly begins, yet God preserves him through the faith and courage of others. Even before Moses is aware of God, God is already at work.

Reflective Focus:

- God's protection before we understand our purpose
- Trusting God with what feels out of our control
- How God works through ordinary acts of faith

Reflection Questions:

- Where can you see God's protection in your early life?
- Are there moments where God was working before you recognized Him?

Prayer Prompt:

Lord, thank You for guarding my life even before I knew you. Help me trust you with what I cannot control and rest in Your care.

Day 2: Acting Too Soon and Running Away

Scripture: Exodus 2:11–15

Moses tries to fix injustice with his own strength. His actions lead to failure and fear, forcing him to run. This moment reminds us that good intentions do not replace God's timing.

Reflective Focus:

- Waiting on God's timing
- The danger of acting without God's direction
- How failure can redirect us rather than end us

Reflection Questions:

- Have you ever acted before seeking God's guidance?
- What did that season teach you?

Prayer Prompt:

God, teach me to wait for You. Help me not rush ahead of Your timing, but to trust Your direction even when it feels slow.

Day 3: The Wilderness Years—Hidden but Not Forgotten

Scripture: Exodus 2:16–25

Moses spends years in obscurity as a shepherd. Nothing about his life looks significant, yet God is shaping him quietly. The wilderness becomes a place of preparation.
